

THAMES VALLEY EARLY MUSIC FORUM

Hieronymus Praetorius (1560-1629)

A day for singers and instruments directed by Patrick Allies
United Reformed Church, Ickenham, Swakeleys Road, UB10 8BE
Saturday 17th January 2015 (10.00am for 10.30am start till 5.00pm)

We will explore the range of sacred music written by this excellent Hamburg-based composer. Praetorius was one of the first North German composers to write in the Venetian polychoral style and three of the six works to be studied are in this style.

Instructions on how to obtain the music are given in the November Tamesis (non-members should email or telephone David King – details below).

Applications are invited from singers, viols (all sizes), recorders (alto downwards), cornets, sackbuts, curtals, lutes, and theorbos. Pitch will be A=440. Instrumentalists should indicate their voice type on the form below if they wish to sing for some of the time.

Patrick Allies read music at Kings College, London and then took a masters degree at Cambridge University. He now teaches singing and conducts a number of choirs including Siglo de Oro, which specializes in early music. In addition he has led many successful music workshops days and this will be his second TVEMF workshop.

The day will begin with coffee and registration at 10.00am for a 10.30am start and run till 5.00pm. There are pubs and a cafe serving lunch in Ickenham. The church is in Swakeleys Road, on the corner of Eleanor Grove. The nearest stations are Ickenham (Metropolitan) and West Ruislip (Chiltern and Central). The Oxford buses stop at Hillingdon Circus about a mile away. For drivers there is parking in the streets by the church.

The fee for the day for those printing out their own music (see November Tamesis) is £10 for Early Music Forum members and £12 for non-members. Participants collecting music on the day should pay £12 (£14 non-members). For instrumentalists also wishing to sing, the same rates apply but non-singing instrumentalists pay £10 (£12 non-members). Please send the slip below as soon as possible and no later than 3rd January to David King, 5 St Paul's Way, Finchley, London N3 2PP (020-83464759, davidking125@btinternet.com). An acknowledgement will be sent by email or can be sent by post if a stamped addressed envelope is enclosed.
