Palestrina and the glories of Rome

A Talk by Patrick Craig

music by Palestrina, Josquin, Lassus, Victoria and more

Date and time: Thursday 13th August 8pm on Zoom

Description: Palestrina spent most of his working life in Rome, including many years as maestro di cappella at St Peter's. At his funeral in 1594 many of the composers he taught and influenced paid their respects at the lavish ceremony in St Peter's Basilica.

While looking at Palestrina's genius and influence, we shall also look at other composers from across Europe who made their reputations in the city of Rome, including Josquin, Lassus and Victoria.

Please all read this about Zoom (5, 6 and 7 have changed from last time):

1. Download the Zoom app. <https://zoom.us/> It will work on PCs, laptops, tablets or smart phones but the larger the screen size the better the experience.
2. Click on the link in the Zoom link email to join the meeting and if required, enter the ID and password information for the meeting. You can’t join the meeting until the host has opened it.
3. Audio and Camera. Turn on your audio when prompted. Turn on your Camera when prompted (white video camera icon) or if you do not wish to be seen you can turn your camera off.
4. Gallery/Speaker View: Once you’ve joined the meeting choose between Gallery View (which shows small screens of all participants – good for seeing your friends and who else is present) or Speaker View (best once the presentation starts).
5. Mute/Unmute (the small microphone symbol) Your sound will be Muted by the Host once the presentation begins but you can Unmute yourself to applaud or ask a question at the end.
6. Chat (the white speech bubble symbol usually at the bottom of the black Zoom screen, or under 3 dots on iPads). This allows you to send a message to Everyone or just to one participant.
7. Qs&As These will be taken at the end of the presentation. Please send your questions for Patrick in a personal Chat message to the interviewer, Vivien Butler, rather than to everyone, so that they don’t get lost in the general chat.

We look forward to your company for what promises to be another fascinating and enjoyable evening.
