Magnificat a 28 by Giovanni Gabrieli

directed by

Philip Thorby

at Waltham Abbey

Saturday 20th April 2013 10.00 for 10.30 until about 5.30

The main work for this event will be the magnificent Magnificat a 28 by Giovanni Gabrieli reconstructed by Hugh Keyte from the eight surviving parts. You may have heard it at the Proms last summer. As this may not take up the entire day there will also be at least one other large work for the same forces. The workshop is for voices and appropriate instruments such as cornetts, sackbuts, curtals, recorders, strings and continuo. Pitch will be A = 440.

Philip Thorby is well known to Forum members for his many enjoyable and instructive workshops. He is Director of Musica Antiqua of London and until recently was Director of Early Music at Trinity College of Music.

Waltham Abbey is near M25 Junctions 26 or 25 (the A10 intersection). Waltham Cross station is about a mile away - trains from Liverpool Street. In most cases the National Rail Enquiries website recommends taking the faster train from Liverpool Street or Cambridge to Cheshunt and then it's one stop back south on the slow train to Waltham Cross. There will be a link to a map of the venue on the TVEMF web site www.tvemf.org.

Coffee and biscuits will be available but not lunch. You may prefer to bring a packed lunch rather than go out into the town, as Kate Macpherson will be giving a short organ recital at lunch time of works by Bach, De Grigny and Jehan Alain.

The cost for this workshop is £12 for Early Music Forum members and £14 for non-members. Please apply as early as possible. You can assume that you have been accepted unless you hear to the contrary by the closing date, 8th April. Applications may be accepted after this date but the cost will increase by £2. If you find you cannot come, please be sure to let us know in good time. Don't just fail to turn up as not only will we keep your cheque but you may deprive someone on the waiting list of a place.

If you would like to take part please send the attached form to: Victoria Helby, 50 Sheepfold Lane, Amersham HP7 9EJ. secretary@tvemf.org (01494 721582)
