

THAMES VALLEY EARLY MUSIC FORUM

Lassus – Masses, Motets and a Chanson

A day for singers and instruments directed by Patrick Allies

St Sepulchre's Church, Holborn Viaduct, London EC1A 2DQ

Saturday 15th June 2013 (10.00am for 10.30am start till 5.00pm)

This workshop will provide an insight into the extraordinary range of the composer's output from grandiose motets and elegant mass settings (on questionable themes) to poignant chansons. We will study three motets, a Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus and Agnus Dei setting each from a different mass and the chanson 'Bonjour mon coeur'. (Details in March Tamesis). The music is from 4 to 8 parts.

Applications are invited from singers, viols (all sizes), recorders (alto downwards), cornets, sackbuts, curtals, lutes, and theorbos. Pitch will be A=440. Instrumentalists should indicate their voice type on the form below if they are willing to sing for some of the time.

Patrick Allies read music at Kings College, London and then took a masters degree at Cambridge University. He now teaches singing and conducts a number of choirs including Siglo de Oro, which specializes in early music. In addition he has led a number of highly successful music workshops days.

St Sepulchre's, the National Musicians' Church, is located at the junction of Holborn Viaduct and Giltspur Street – see www.st-sepulchre.org.uk/maps.html There are plenty of local places to have lunch and packed lunches may be eaten in the church. The day will begin with coffee and registration at 10.00am.

The fee for the day is £12 for Early Music Forum members and £14 for non-members, cheques payable to TVEMF. Please send the slip below as soon as possible and no later than 3rd June to David King, 5 St Paul's Way, Finchley, London N3 2PP (020-83464759, davidking125@btinternet.com). You should assume your application has been accepted unless you hear to the contrary. An acknowledgement can be sent by email if requested or by post if a stamped addressed envelope is enclosed.
